Stotzenburg of Indianapolis moving that a joint commission of bishops, presbyters and laymen be appointed for the purpose of memorializing the legislative bodies of the various States in the interest of laws restricting the performance of marriages to ministers of the gospel. The matter was placed on the calendar.

The house voted to fix the age limit for those entering the order of deaconesses at 23 years.

The house voted to fix the age limit for those entering the order of deaconesses at 23 years.

The house of deputies in committee of the whole discussed the proposed canon forbidding remarriage by a divorced person while the former pariner is living. A commotion was caused by John C. Buxton of Winston, N. C., who affempted to link the divorce evil with the liquor question. Mr. Buxton is the deputy who, on the opening day of the convention attempted to read a resolution censuring lishop Potter of New York for opening the sub-way saloon.

In his remarks today he expressed the opinion that it would be better for the church to curb the liquor traffic before changing the canons on marriage. Continuing he was saying. If, instead of a high official of the church lending his indusence to the dedication of saloons, when he was interrupted by a point of order. Mr. Buxton was admenished by the chairman. Still he attempted to make some further reference indirectly to the sub-way tavern, but was promptly called to order by the chairman.

The spiritual side of auxiliary work was the subject discussed at the woman's auxiliary conference today. Among the speakers were Bishops L. R. Brewer of Montana, and John M. Kendrick of Arizona and New Mexico.
